STATEMENT

The plaintiff, currently an Illinois state prisoner, has brought this pro se civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The plaintiff claims that the defendants, unknown Chicago Police Officers, violated the plaintiff's constitutional rights by acting with deliberate indifference to his multiple serious medical needs. More specifically, the plaintiff alleges that, upon his arrest in November 2011, he was denied needed care and treatment for his acute symptoms of drug withdrawal, diabetes, mental health issues, sleep apnea, and mobility problems.

The plaintiff has failed either to pay the statutory filing fee or to file a petition for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. The Prison Litigation Reform Act requires all inmates to pay the full filing fee, even those whose cases are summarily dismissed. In all prisoner civil lawsuits, the court must assess an initial partial filing fee. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). The court will direct correctional officials to deduct the initial filing fee payment directly from the plaintiff's trust fund account. Thereafter, correctional authorities having custody of the plaintiff will be authorized and ordered to make monthly payments to the court of 20% of the preceding month's income credited to the trust fund account until such time as the full filing fee is paid.

STATEMENT (continued)

To enable the court to make the necessary assessment of the initial partial filing fee, the plaintiff must “submit a certified copy of the trust fund account statement (or institutional equivalent) for the prisoner for the 6-month period immediately preceding the filing of the complaint or notice of appeal, obtained from the appropriate official of each prison at which the prisoner is or was confined.” 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(2). Therefore, if the plaintiff wishes to proceed with this case by making installment payments instead of paying the full filing fee in advance, he must file an in forma pauperis application on the form required by the rules of this court, together with a certified copy or copies of his trust fund statements reflecting all activity in his accounts in the past six months [that is, from July 15, 2011, through January 15, 2013].

For the foregoing reasons, the plaintiff is granted thirty days in which to either pay the $350.00 filing fee or submit a properly completed application to proceed in forma pauperis. Failure to comply within thirty days will result in summary dismissal of this case.
